

Team Read

DUAL IMPACT

TEENS TUTORING KIDS TO ACHIEVE READING SUCCESS

THE DIFFERENCE WE MAKE

ONE out of TWO Seattle 3rd graders from low-income or English language learning families aren't reading at grade level

The Problem We Solve

4x DROP OUT OF SCHOOL

Children reading below grade level at the end of third grade are four times more likely to drop out of school.

2x SLIP INTO POVERTY

High school drop outs are twice as likely to slip into poverty

High school drop outs are not eligible for 90% of jobs in the United States

Who We Serve

2nd and 3rd Graders

90% Students of color

55% Speak a language other than English at home

85% On free or reduced lunch

Teen Reading Coaches

85% Students of color

30% Speak a language other than English at home

50% On free or reduced lunch

Dual Impact

Team Read's one-to-one tutoring model enables students to become confident readers with the necessary reading skills for academic success, and teens to develop personal and work skills through meaningful paid tutoring jobs that support their transition into college and future employment. Team Read's year round program partners with school districts and public libraries to achieve measurable results.

Dual Results

2nd and 3rd Graders

70% Students more than double their prior year reading level

90% Teachers see their students' reading ability improve through the program

97% Families agree Team Read helps their child learn to read

Teen Reading Coaches

91% Teens say Team Read gave them skills they can use in other work now or in the future

92% Teens report their role gave them a chance to make a difference and gave them a sense of accomplishment

87% Teens say Team Read taught them to persevere even when things don't come easily